William Shires of Estella, who was arrested day before yesterday for stealing corn, gave bond yesterday and was released.

G. M. Tucker, of Welch, was released from jail yesterday, friends having paid the fine and costs imposed on the charge of larceny.

Delightful Young Folks Party.

A very delightful party was given in honor of Miss Grace Davenport, eldest daughter of Congressman James S. Davenport at the home of T. M. Buflington last evening. The gathering was composed of the younger set, and chaperoned by Miss Bertha Thomason and Mr. John H. Crutchfield. Among the girls present were Norville Ratcliff, Mamie Riley, Rose Gill, Marion McFarland, Catherine Chamberlin, Dorothy Davenport, Grace Davenport, Alice Heron, Mary Barrett, Hilda Gatewood, Katy Webb, Louise Davis, Paleta Ray, Rebecca Pershing, Jolie Neville and Rachel Hill.

Among the boys were Ed and Chas. Davidson, Tom Collins, Jim Hill, Geo. Kelley, James Clark, Oscar Jones, Robert Tarrant, Ross Harris, Merl Badgett.

The hours were from 7:30 to 10:30.

Story of the Circus.

"Polly of the Circus," which will be the attraction at the Auditorium next month is a wonderful play with a wonderful record. A circus story, wherein strong contrasting characters meet, mingle and make a tale of absorbing human interest. The play ran for one solid year at the Liberty Theatre in New York City, and will be presented here with all its vast and elaborate scenic equipment and the wonderful circus features that won its fame and success in its original production.

Charming, fascinating, petite Polly, the "circus ridin' girl," is born of generations of circus folk and when her mother, the greatest rider of her day, dies a victim of her own ambition, Polly is left alone. But she is not without friends, for "Big Jim," the boss canvasman, with a heart as generous as the breadth of his great shoulders and "Uncle Toby," the clown adopt the human mite and foster her like a delicate plant. "Muvver" Jim's intense and "Uncle Toby's" pathetic devotion to their ward is one of the most charming touches of the story.

The circus is Polly's world. She knows no other. She grows up in the atmosphere of sawdust and tinsel. Her mother's spirit lives in her and she becomes her worthy successor as a star of the sawdust ring. The reckless abandon of her riding brings her grief. She falls from the back of her horse, and is carried unconscious to the parsonage nearby, and there is set the combination of Mandy, the motherly old colored housekeeper; the manly, susceptible young parson, John Douglass; the fascinating little convalescent; the well-meaning but narrow church folks, and Polly's "parents" who want her back in the circus, all pulling wires that makes "Polly of the Circus" an appealing story from beginning to end.

In reviewing "Polly of the Circus," the New York Herald says: "It is a gripping story of the sawdust ring that brings his fond recollections." The World says: "It has originality; every boy and girl up to seventy years old should see it."
